

Drivers Rewarded for Exceptional Safety Record

Caglia Environmental rewarded its Industrial Waste and Salvage (IWS) drivers with a dinner at the Old Spaghetti Factory for their safety record of 1500 days on the job without injuries. The evening featured comments from Alan L. Davis, Caglia Environmental General Manager; Sally Caglia, Executive Administrator and Co-

Owner; Richard Caglia, President of Corporate Development; and Nick Caglia, Sales/Customer Relations Manager. The Caglia family and management all expressed appreciation to the IWS drivers for their excellent service. Prizes awarded through a drawing included big screen televisions and Amazon gift cards.

The following drivers, who were in attendance at the event, were rewarded for their exemplary efforts at being safe on the job, and in the communities they serve.

Big screen TV winners:

Derek Breshears
Eric Lebaron
Pete Moreno
Chris Rash
Omar Sanchez

Amazon gift card winners:

Robert Fields
José Ramirez
Conrad Valdez
Armando Vega

The Caglia family and Caglia Environmental management are pleased to reward their drivers for their efforts at safety so that they, and the neighborhoods they serve, are safe from harmful accidents.
